Davis, who fixed the period of supervision at 20 years supervised release, and imposed the general terms and conditions theretofore adopted by the Court and also imposed special conditions and terms as follows:

- Search/seizure
- No computer/internet access
- Computer search
- Employment required
- Provide requested financial documentation
- Not possess/view/access terroristic or extremist material
- Mental health counseling
- Polygraph examinations
- Surrender passport and not apply for a new passport
- Residential reentry center with Global Positioning System (GPS) technology for 365 days
- Substance abuse testing
- No interviews/speeches unless approved by the Court and U.S. Attorney's Office
- Substance abuse treatment (modified April 4, 2018)

RESPECTFULLY PRESENTING PETITION FOR ACTION OF COURT FOR CAUSE AS FOLLOWS:

SPECIAL CONDITION: The defendant shall reside for a period of up to 365 days in a residential reentry center as approved by the probation officer and shall observe the rules of that facility, which may include location monitoring with Global Positioning System (GPS) technology. The defendant may be restricted to their residence at all time except for employment; education; religious services; medical; substance abuse; or mental health treatment; court obligations; or discretionary leave activities as approved by the probation officer. The defendant shall not be required to pay the costs of location monitoring.

On July 17, 2018, during an investigation regarding gambling at the halfway house, the defendant approached Case Management and admitted to gambling on the recent soccer games with another resident as well as collecting winnings. Gambling is prohibited in the residential reentry center.
